

Marcia: He could be a lot of fun too.

JW: And I've heard that. I heard that he was a practical joker?

Marcia: Well, yeah, because on a couple of episodes, you know, we'd be sitting on his lap, and I mean, this is probably when he was 15 or 16 years old, and he'd love to chew on toothpicks.

JW: They did that in the '50s, right?

Marcia: Yeah. So we'd sit on his lap and he'd hide the toothpick up in his cheek, and you couldn't find it. I mean, it was a lot of fun.

JW: Oh my gosh. That's so cute. Now was this your little brother, you mean, when you say "we"?

Marcia: Yeah, yeah. My youngest brother. Robert and I. But uh, yeah, basically, the three older boys went out and played basketball, they'd play catch with us, and yeah, they taught me a lot about sports.
